

GUS LUSSI
DOCUMENTARY TO AIR NATIONWIDE

A documentary about the life of skating coach Gustave Lussi entitled Gustave Lussi: The Man Who Changed Skating is scheduled to be aired on PBS stations nationwide April 5 at 8:30 pm (EST).

However, the air date is subject to local PBS programming influences, so you are advised to call your local PBS affiliate to confirm scheduling in your area.

Produced by Joanne Taylor and Cecily Morrow, the documentary is a skating masterpiece. It skillfully cuts across time with rare historical footage of skating champions combined with interviews of some of Lussi's most successful former students including Dick Button, Otto and Maria Jelinek, Don Jackson, Dorothy Hamill, John Curry and Toller Cranston.
